

ServiceNow Incident UI Policy

Dynamic Control of Incident Form Fields

Create a UI Policy on the Incident table to dynamically control form fields based on specific conditions. The policy can make selected fields mandatory, read-only, or visible when the defined condition is met.

Purpose

This configuration helps ensure that users provide the required information and follow consistent data-entry practices while creating or updating Incident records.